Stonewall

ABOUT THIS RESOURCE

This resource is produced by Stonewall, a UK-based charity that stands for the freedom, equity and potential of all lesbian, gay, bi, trans, queer, questioning and ace (LGBTQ+) people.

At Stonewall, we imagine a world where LGBTQ+ people everywhere can live our lives to the full.

Founded in London in 1989, we now work in each nation of the UK and have established partnerships across the globe. Over the last three decades, we have created transformative change in the lives of LGBTQ+ people in the UK, helping win equal rights around marriage, having children and inclusive education.

Our campaigns drive positive change for our communities, and our sustained change and empowerment programmes ensure that LGBTQ+ people can thrive throughout our lives. We make sure that the world hears and learns from our communities, and our work is grounded in evidence and expertise.

To find out more about our work, visit us at www.stonewall.org.uk

Registered Charity No 1101255 (England and Wales) and SC039681 (Scotland)

'Music gives me an outlet to express myself. I have so many thoughts and feelings desperate for somewhere to go.'

CJ RUN
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

'I enjoy programming because I get to solve puzzles as my job.'

MAX TOPAN
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

'I work in project management and enjoy painting in my spare time.'

LEO YUNG
(he/they)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

‘Playing the ukulele has been a wonderful source of expression for me. I've made friends with players all over the world.’

ASH STOKOE
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

'I create online posts and videos that aim to educate people on Disability awareness and LGBTQ+ positivity. I like my job because I'm able to meet amazing people who are part of my community.'

ELIZA
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

'I write software, both as a job and as a hobby. I love building tools that make people's life easier.'

ALEX CHAN
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

‘I love being a teacher because I love helping people understand things.’

HITEN SHAH
(they/them)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.

‘I organise campaigns, create social events, and change policies at my university to make life easier for students.’

NIC FARMER
(they/he)

Non-binary Day of Visibility takes place every year on 14 July and is aimed at raising awareness of the issues faced by non-binary people around the world. These posters share the stories of non-binary people in their own words.